

There has been a change of the place for civic reception. The civic reception will be held in "Gabinete Literario", an emblematic building in the old town. After ending the scientific program on Tuesday, 8th September, delegates will be taken by buses to the civic reception, where they will be greeted by the President of The Veterinary College of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, and served a cocktail accompanied by a traditional lively canary music.

