

VINCCI BIT****

It is located in the Diagonal Mar, near the CCIB convention center next to Diagonal Mar Shopping Centre; and where the modern art also has its place, since the hallways of each floor have been decorated with graffiti murals by nationally and internationally recognized illustrators and designers.

In the basement, the work of the photographer Mathias Martín is on display, while on the ground floor, guests may enjoy works by the Russian design studio Dopludo Collective, and on the first floor, a complex mural by the architect and illustrator Mister Mourau. A series of distinguished artists created the décor of the hallways of the remain floors including: the designer and illustrator Alex Trochut and the visual artist Aleix Gordo, both Catalan, the American artist Matthew Moore, the famous illustrator of Italian origin Lorenzo Petrantoni, the Japanese illustrator, Yoshi Sislai, who resides in Barcelona, along with Cristian Gastaldi and the illustration studio Brosmind.
